as they have up to 32MB of free space) and have Samsung SCPH-30000, SCPH-5500, SCPH-1000, SCPH-1500. Perso.I forgot to mention that this is why I know I will never be a feminist, because feminism is a new concept for me. I don't think anyone wants to be a feminist. It is a term we use as if it were a dirty word.

It's most be defined as what men are, right? A feminist would always be for equality, she would have no problem with men being stronger. If anything, I associate feminism with slavery. I'm not a feminist. To be a feminist you have to be for equality. If not, you aren't for equality, you are against it, a feminist is always for equality. In our country, we have the Bill of Rights and Equal Rights Amendment that go into our constitution. To be against that is to be against equality. I associate feminism with slavery because the idea that women are subservient to the men who made them. It sounds odd to some people now but if you look at the history of our country, you will see that there were women who felt that way. There have been feminists who believed that women had to be equal to the men in every way, that they had to be paid the same amount, have the same options. When I was a young girl, I was reading the biography of Eleanor Roosevelt. That woman endured a lot of things. Being attacked by a mob when she was going to be married. The death of her mother and being raised by a man who she hated. To me, that was unacceptable. While men do endure terrible things, they don't get that kind of treatment as a part of it. There was a recent article about a woman who was invited to give her opinion on rape and domestic violence. She was speaking to a group of men and women. The men were very
